Road Grader Fills Need At Grassland

GRASSLAND—The new motor grader, which has been purchased by Division 6 of the Municipality of Athabasca, is now hard at work getting the district roads into shape after the spring thaw.

This machine, made by the Caterpillar Company, is a Model 112, and cost $16,558. Of this amount, $1800 has been raised by local taxpayers and it is hoped to increase these contributions to $2,000. Councillor Derko states that donations are still coming in.

Ted Leschysyn, who drives the outfit, says it handles nicely, and does a good job. It may be used for the building of roads as well as maintenance. A snow plow, costing $4,000 will be purchased later.

Constable Dennis Norton, R.C. M.P., who is being posted to Vermilion, was presented with a Ronson lighter.

An enjoyable evening was had by all in spite of the nasty rain and muddy roads that had to be contended with on the way home.

The local telephone office has been managed by the Hamel family since January 10, 1924, and this is the first time in all those years that a member of the family is not in charge.

Mrs. Hamel has decided to retire from work at the telephone office and recommended Mrs. C. Calvert, one of her operators, for the position as agent. She will continue to reside in Lac La Biche, although she is hoping to pay a visit to her family and friends in Montreal, later this year.

Lions Charter Night Proves Great Success

LAC LA BICHE — On April 24, the Lions Charter Night was held at the Legion Hall. A good representation was in attendance and an enjoyable evening was had by all.

Lion W. J. Chester, as Master of Ceremonies for the evening, kept things moving at a nice pace. Lion H. McCaskill led the sing song and Dr. A. Brinsmead proposed the toast to the ladies. Here it might be said the ladies were a bit confused, as to whether they were actually being complimented, or whether the Toastmaster was indulging in a bit of good natured "leg-pulling". Mrs. J. Lett replied to the toast for the ladies, and Lion J. Stewart then announced that all ladies present would receive a little token from the Lions Club, to show their esteem.

During the evening Mrs. A. Brinsmead entertained with two vocal selections. Her rendition of "Don't Let the Stars Get In Your Eyes", left the audience in "stitches", and she had to encore with the same number.

Governor of District 37B L. Hall introduced the guest speaker, Lion Wm J. Hagen, of Billings, Montana. In the middle of Mr. Hall's introduction there was a commotion at the entrance of the hall, and while the speaker patiently waited to see the outcome several members and their ladies, of Smoky Lake made a delayed entrance. It seems that the Smoky Lake crowd decided to get here early by taking a short-cut route, only to discover that it proved to be the long way around. Seeing as how it had rained in that vicinity there were a few mud holes to contend with. However, this did not dampen their spirits as they sat down to a belated dinner.

Mr. Wm. J. Hagen, Governor of District 37A then gave his address, which was in a light vein and most amusing. He also had been mis-directed and had taken the wrong road, but decided that it was worth the few miles of ruts and mud to finally get here. In his opinion the country here is beautiful, and tourists go hundreds of miles to get to a lake such as Lac La Biche. The only thing wrong with the place in his estimation is that there aren't enough saddle horses. Of course, being such an avid horseman himself, and publisher and editor of the magazine the "Bit and Spur", he wouldn't see things otherwise. Mrs. Hagen also agreed it was worth all the miles and all the rain to be here.

Among the guests present were: Governor of District 37A, Mr. Wm. J. Hagen and Mrs. Hagen of Billings, Montana; Deputy Governor of District 37B, Mr. John Lupul and Mrs. Lupul of Fort Saskatchewan; Zone chairman of 37B, Mr. Pete Sereda and Mrs. Sereda of Andrew; Zone chairman of 37B, Mr. John Semeniuk and Mrs. Semeniuk of Boyle; President of Andrew Lions Club, Mr. Harry Olson and Mrs. Olson; President of Grassland Lions Club, Mr. W. Alfred Corse and Mrs. Corse; There were visiting Lions and their ladies from Fort Saskatchewan, Andrew, Smoky Lake, Boyle and Grassland Clubs. Dancing followed the banquet, with the local orchestra in attendance.

On Thursday night a very good turnout was at the grounds. By observation it was noted that this will certainly be a good team.

All proceeds went toward the rebuilding of the Catholic Church at Athabasca, which was recently destroyed by fire. Use of the hall was donated by the Community League. A dance was held after the show.

A farewell party was held on Saturday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Davidiuk, old-timers of this district, who are leaving for the city, where Mr. Davidiuk has purchased a home. The guests presented the hosts with a very pretty tri-light lamp. Dancing lasted until the early hours of the morning.

CANADA TO INSIST ON $2.05 INTERNATIONAL TOP WHEAT PRICE

OTTAWA—When the new International Wheat Agreement begins operations next August, Canada plans to ask the top price of $2.05 a bushel for her wheat, a Canadian official reported recently.

This would mean an increase of 19 cents (U.S. prices) over the current top IWA figure of $1.86, including carrying charges, basis No. 1 Northern.

Because of the huge world supplies there had been some speculation as to what Canada's asking price would be, whether it would be the current price, the top price, or somewhere in between. Officials said Canada would ask the ceiling.

A Canadian spokesman said he was confident Canada could get the price because of the current world market strength for Class II wheat. Current Canadian prices for Class II wheat are about $2.13 a bushel, about 15 cents lower than that of the U.S.

Sales for the year have been booked for as much wheat as can be moved, and Canada has been selling a lot of Class II wheat as has the U.S.

More and more importing countries are signing the new three-year wheat pact which replaces the current four-year one, ending July 31.

Twenty-seven of the forty-two signatories of the present agreement have signed the new one and officials expect that most of the importers except Britain will sign. Britain is expected to sign spectacularly at the last minute, some and hastening the day of freedom for others.

The proclamation came as a special issue of the Canada Gazette, dated the 15th of April, but issued only on Monday.

The general rule of a 30 day cut each year does not apply to those serving six months or less or those serving either life or indefinite terms, or those serving less than a year, but more than six months will have one twelfth of their sentences reduced.

There are approximately 4800 prisoners in federal penitentiaries and officials are being asked to determine the number whose release will be affected because of the action.

The action was formally taken by Governor-General Massey "in an exercise of the royal prerogative of mercy" and in keeping with "the practice for the Sovereign to mark occasions of such importance by an act of Grace and Mercy".

The seat of the machine, which he had just vacated, was demolished.

Student Panel Outlines School Program

ATHABASCA—In spite of a steady rain, a number of H & S members turned out on Friday night for the regular meeting. A special program had been arranged with the entertainment and the panel both being given by the school students.

Mrs. Tymchuk was in charge of the chorus and folk dance numbers presented by girls from the junior high school grades. Both items were well done and brought generous applause from the audience.

The major portion of the meeting was devoted to a panel where grades 9, 10, 11 and 12 students explained some of the details of the subjects which are listed on the school report card. Roy Fodchuk was chairman of the panel as he is the president of the high school student's council. The panel members were Ardith Peters and Frank Thompson, grade 9; Helen Fodchuk and John Nill, grade 10; Elfriede Schinkinger and Walter Babowal, grade 11; Elmer Balay and Steve Kamelchuk, grade 12.

The chairman started the discussion by explaining what on credit meant on the school program. The group then discussed the name, scope and credit values for all of the compulsory academic subjects such as social studies and English. A number of representative options from the general technical and commercial electives were also outlined by the members since many of these were relatively new additions to school curricula.

In addition to school subjects having credit value considerable time was given to discussing the sports and club activities of the school. These play a large part in developing group cooperation as well as being influential in giving guidance to vocational choices of a job.

After the business session with the discussion of resolutions, the group adjourned to the home economics room for lunch.

THE BIBLE IS A CATHOLIC BOOK

People differ radically in what they think about the Bible.

Some seem to think it was handed down from Heaven written in English and bound in morocco. Many accept it as the inspired Word of God without knowing why they are justified in doing so. And others say that the Bible is full of contradictions and must be taken "with a grain of salt."

A proper understanding of the Scriptures can exert a tremendous influence for good in your personal life. You should, therefore, know where we get the Bible... what it means... why you can believe its every word.

Nowhere in the Bible text will you find a list of the 73 inspired books of which it is composed. This list was given to the world by the Catholic Church almost three full centuries after the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Between the time of the Crucifixion and the time that the Scriptures were gathered into a single Book, millions had received and accepted the teachings of Christ... and had died without ever seeing the complete Bible.

Established by Christ Himself and rapidly spread among the nations of the world, the Catholic Church was carrying on Christ's work for the salvation of men some 60 years before the Apostle John wrote his books of the New Testament.

For more than a thousand years afterward, the Scriptures were preserved and circulated by Catholic monks and scholars who laboriously copied the sacred text by hand. And the Bible authorized by the Catholic Church was the first book produced by Gutenberg upon the invention of printing.

Yes, the Bible is truly a Catholic book. They were members of the Catholic Church who, under God's inspiration, wrote the New Testament in its entirety.

It was the Catholic Church which treasured it and gave it to the world in its original and unaltered form. It is the infallible authority of the Catholic Church that always has been the only sure guarantee of its inspiration.

There are obscure and difficult passages in the Bible, some of which may seem confusing. But with the complete revealed truth of God, delivered to her from the beginning, the Catholic Church has faithfully unfolded the meaning of the written Word of God to past generations of mankind—and does so today.

Those who are familiar with the Bible, as well as those who are reading it for the first time, will find many important questions concerning it clearly answered in a free booklet which we shall send you on request. Ask for Pamphlet No. 3-N.

A little three-year-old cousin was left at home for a few days while her parents were gone to a wedding. There were so many things to see, that she kept getting in trouble time after time. To try and attract her attention I imitated a chicken. Quick as a flash she whirled around and said, "Where's the egg?"

One of the classic tales of college students and their marks is that of the football coach who protested to his first-string quarterback's math professor, "Oh, come now, I'm sure he doesn't deserve a zero!"

Registered and Certified Seed Crops

This is the season when seed producers should be giving thought to the production of their pedigreed seed crops. Certain producers should be borne in mind in this regard. Such crops should of course be grown as far as possible on the most suitable and cleanest land available and definite plans laid to have them prepared for inspection in the best manner possible. Especially is this true in the case of prospective growers who have not had previous experience in this type of production.

The pedigree of the purchased registered seed is given on the official seed tags attached to the seed sacks, and unless such tags are sealed to the sacks the seed contained cannot be recognized as registered. Since they are the growers' certificate of pedigree all the seed tags should be carefully preserved so they can be used at crop inspection time to establish the suitability of crop for inspection.

Application for inspection of the standing crop should be made in ample time. These applications must be made to the Plant Products Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Immigration Building, Calgary, for Alberta seed growers. The cut off date for acceptance of applications is June 30th. If the application is not received prior to that date the inspection will not be made until prior applications have been completed. Inspection cannot be made when proper applications have not been received. Applications can be cancelled by the grower if at a later date it proves necessary.

Proper preparation of fields for inspection is essential. Many excellent fields have been refused recognition because of simple matters that were within the growers' power to correct. Improper isolation of the field is one of the prime reasons for refusal of registration. Proper isolation according to rules laid down should be practised.

Information regarding proper production of registered crops and proper application forms will be supplied on application to the Canadian Seed Growers' Association at Ottawa or the Plant Products Division, Immigration Building, Calgary.

General procedure in the production of crops for certification are similar to those for registration except in the Couch Free certification of grasses and other inspections of similar nature. In such crops pedigree information is not so essential; hence such inspections do not guarantee varietal purity of crop. These inspections are made to assure the absence of specific impurities. The rules regarding the filing of proper applications for this work are the same as for the registration of crops.

$10.00 Per Ton

An Eastern newspaper takes exception to the $10.00 per ton increase applied to newsprint since April 1st by most of the producing companies.

In the past few years the newsprint companies of Canada have steadily increased the price of their product — and the amount is always the same, $10.00 per ton. Many Canadian papers have attempted to carry these increases but the new increase which was added on April 1st, may break the camel's back. There is almost certain to be an increase in subscription prices.

Many publishers are suggesting that there is no need for the April increase in newsprint prices and they point to the profit recently announced by the Bowater Newfoundland Pulp and Paper Mill, whose net profits rose from $4,069,829 in 1951, to $4,617,474 in 1952. Nor will the publishers be called upon to shed any tears for the Howard Smith Paper Mills Limited which recently announced earnings for 1952 of $9,811,721, after deducting $4,241,107 for depreciation and depletion. Net profits for the year were given as $3,826,882.

If these companies are having a hard time getting along, their net earnings do not show any cause for tears.

Television

By SENATOR F. W. GERSHAW

Television is a means of projecting a stream of images with sound and motion right into people's homes. It is like having a moving-picture show right by your fireplace and, as we are impressed by pictures and motions more than words alone, the memory will retain more of what is being conveyed.

Television is popular in the U.S.A. where there are 19 million sets in the homes. There are two million sets in British homes and 160 thousand sets already in Canadian homes. It is going to be a strong force for good or evil. Adults and children will be influenced by what television brings. The sense of values and the ideals of the future will, to some extent, depend on the kind of programs provided.

In Canada, the 14,000,000 people live mostly on a narrow strip of country stretched from ocean to ocean and close to a great friendly nation to the south. Steps have been taken to develop industries here, although as consumers it would be cheaper not to have them. Decisions have been made and a nation with aspirations and ideals of its own has been built and material things are produced for comfort and well-being. It is just as important to develop things of the mind that are particularly Canadian and British, and television is a vivid and effective method of fostering national viewpoints.

Television depends on the use of public air channels and parliament must decide how these channels will be used. It has been arranged that television in Canada will contribute to our national and family life, something with a large measure of Canadian content, although some material may come from outside. While programs must be entertaining, it has been decided to avoid the shoddy, flashy material and to put on more worthwhile things in the light of knowledge gained as to what is most effective to broaden our horizons.

It would be much cheaper to import programs than to create them but, teams of trained people are already creating programs for the Montreal station. The government has authorized three other stations in the cities of Vancouver, Winnipeg and Halifax and private stations will likely further the coverage in time.

In Canada the big spaces, big distances and number of people are some of the obstacles to be overcome but television can make life richer through the years and can give Canadians an opportunity to contribute to the flow of good things in a free world.

Socialism At Work

(From the Lethbridge Herald)

Socialism works best in the field of monopoly. Indeed, that's about the only way that Socialism can work.

An instance of Socialism in operation is provided by the city of Saskatoon where the Saskatchewan CCF Government has held the gun to the citizens' heads and told them they'll pay 80 cents a thousand for natural gas . . . or else.

Naturally, with Calgary, Lethbridge, Edmonton in Alberta getting natural gas for 40 per cent that figure, delivered to the home, and with Medicine Hat citizens owning their own gas wells and getting their gas at a much lower figure, the people of Saskatoon balked at paying what the Douglas Government demanded. But the Provincial Government has control over pipelines, and can set its own figure almost. It declared natural gas a government monopoly, and at first told Saskatoon the price of natural gas would be 95 cents a thousand. This in spite of the fact that considerable quantities of gas are being found in northwestern Saskatchewan, not so far by pipeline from Saskatoon.

The city rebelled against the 95 cent figure but has now capitulated at 80 cents.

To an Albertan that sounds like an outrageous price for natural gas for domestic consumption in city homes. But then, Alberta has never had a government monopoly on natural gas distribution. We have a number of privately-owned companies distributing our gas requirements. We do not always agree with the price they ask, but we have a Government Utility Board riding hard, trying to keep the balance fair as between producer and consumer.

We can't say that the CCF policy in Saskatchewan makes Albertans anxious to import that brand of politics here. Nor does the gas policy of Premier Douglas strengthen the hand of CCF Leader Elmer Roper of Alberta who wants to make electric power in Alberta a government monopoly. Not at 80 cents for a thousand feet of natural gas, nor at the equivalent rate for our electric power needs.

DANGER OF RABIES

Rabies, an infectious disease is very dangerous. But few people realize how serious it is. A by-law was passed to prohibit the "running at large" of dogs. To this day I have only seen three farmers who have their dogs tied continuously. Dogs are running down the roads, in other people's yards and everywhere else.

Farmers have complained that dogs have gone into their yards and chased cattle. Perhaps people do not realize the importance of controlling this dreaded disease.

Everyone knows that cattle will soon be released into pastures, and since coyotes, wolves and foxes run through these pastures, cattle will be bound to get it.

Some people figure, if a cow gets it she won't bite, but there are several ways it may enter your body. One is from the virus entering by a cut.

Reports are coming from every point of the province on rabies cases, Picture Butte and Burdett, Homeglen and Fort MacLeod.

It is beyond me why dogs are allowed to run loose in the city and towns. The other day, I saw a great number of dogs at large in Edmonton. Why is it that people can raise a dog but cannot keep it at home? If I raised one I'd have him at home, because they make a nice pet. But what good are they five blocks away?

If people were given authority to shoot any stray dogs there would be fewer loose.

WAY OF SALVATION

The world is tiring of hypocrisy and dishonesty in all human relations and crying aloud to be led back some way to truth and honesty in thought and action. But it does not see the way out — and it will not see the way out until the human mind unfolds further. The issue has now become who is to be found true, God or man.

The Editor will pay $1.00 for every item published on "The Most Embarrassing Moment of My Life." To qualify items must be true, personal incidents. Address "Embarrassing Moments," P.O. Box 4368, South Edmonton.

It happened nearly forty-five years ago. I was a young man just arrived in Edmonton as an immigrant from the U.S.A., and, feeling the loneliness generally experienced by young people away from home and life-long friends, I decided one evening to attend a meeting of the Epworth League, which was held in the basement of the old McDougall Methodist Church in down-town Edmonton.

I was one of the early arrivals, and strolled into the auditorium, taking a seat on the left side of the room.

Imagine my embarrassment when a few minutes later I became aware that I was surrounded by young ladies! Glancing to my right, I could see that all the young men were taking the seats on the opposite side of the room. What should I do! I could not get out without disturbing several of the fair sex, and perhaps causing some tittering among them. I decided to "stick it out" to the end of the meeting.

Immediately after the closing hymn, a young lady whom I recognized as a leader among them, came to me and introduced herself and then introduced several of her young friends. I immediately apologized for being in such a predicament, saying that where I came from we seated ourselves as in any other religious gathering, and she replied saying that I did quite alright, and it was just as it ought to be.

That lady was Mrs. Nellie McClung, who went on to become one of Canada's most famous women; and whose name is honored by millions of people yet living in both Canada and the United States. J. S.

LETTER TO LOUISA

Dos and Don'ts For Girl On Dinner Date

"I have just started working in a large office and one of the junior bosses discovered we live in the same neighborhood. He has been waiting for me each evening and we go home on the bus. At first our conversation was all about business, but lately he has talked about me. Last night he invited me to dinner and a movie and I said I'd let him know when I could go.

"I didn't give an answer at once, although I think he expected me to set a date then. I hesitated because, while the movie date does not bother me, I've never gone to dinner with a man before.

"I never ate a meal in a restaurant until I started working. How does one act under the circumstances? Does the girl check her coat? Who goes first as they enter the dining room? I'd like all the advice you can give me, for I do want to continue this friendship and I don't want to appear uncomfortable or out of my element."

If "Helena", who wrote this letter, has good table manners she really has no cause for concern. Of course, some experience in dining out would give her more poise. But if she doesn't have to think about which fork to use, etc., she can give all her attention to the special points of "dinner with an escort."

LEAVE IT TO HIM

Since she knows little about selecting restaurants and even less about her escort's finances, the safe thing is to let him decide where they'll eat. Arrived at the restaurant, he checks his hat and coat, but she checks her coat only if there is a dance floor and she intends to dance. Otherwise, she sits down with her coat on and slips out of the sleeves after she is seated.

If there is a host or hostess to show them to a table, the young woman precedes her escort. If he must look for a table, he goes first. A host or waiter usually pulls out the chair he considers the best location for the lady. Now (before they sit down) is the time to voice any preference. If she doesn't like the table location, she tells her escort and lets him see if they can be seated elsewhere. If she prefers another place at the table she indicates this to the host, who draws out the chair she wants.

Once seated, she picks up her napkin and puts it on her lap. She does not leave her pocketbook, gloves or other "foreign" objects on the table.

After looking at the menu, she tells her escort what she wants

... and lets him give her order and his own to the waiter. If she has any questions about an item on the menu or any special request to make she tells her escort. (As lady never gives orders to, or converses with, a waiter, taxi driver, etc., when she is with a gentleman.)

When the bill or check for the meal is presented, the young woman carefully keeps her eyes averted. She does not appear to notice the financial transactions involved.

After a meal it is permissible to touch up lipstick or use a bit of face powder if this can be done inconspicuously. More elaborate makeup rituals (including the use of a comb) are out of place at the table and call for a trip to the rest room. It is only necessary to rise and say, "Will you excuse me?" or "I'll be back in a minute," when leaving the table for this reason. "Cute" comments such as "I'm going to powder my nose" or "I'm going to the little girls' room" are in bad taste.

At the end of the meal, she slips her arms back into her coat sleeves and adjusts the coat around her shoulders before rising. The lady precedes her escort when leaving the dining room, dropping back in step with him when they can comfortably walk together.

PROFESSOR FORESEES B.C. AS HUGE INDUSTRIAL CENTRE

LILLOOET, B.C. — (BUP) — A University of British Columbia professor has dreamed up a scheme to make British Columbia a western industrial centre, knock the St. Lawrence Seaway plan into a cocked hat and sell the props from under the Grand Coulee dam project in Washington State.

Professor Harry Warren, after an exhaustive study of the reports of many engineers, suggests a power development including a dam at Moran, 20 miles from Lillooet in the heart of the Cariboo country.

He says such a dam would be part of a scheme to harness the whole Fraser River system, making the Cariboo an industrial giant.

The professor says he worked on the idea because he feels that the lower Fraser River is too important to be left unused.

A series of plans to milk the big river of its power has appeared over the year. The Aluminum Company of Canada adopted one of the plans. It drained off power from the Nechako River system and will feed it out to the coast.

According to Warren, a big hydro development at Moran would be equivalent to one-fifth of all the power Canada has developed so far. He said Moran could have an installed capacity of three to four million horsepower.

This compares with the present world's record of 1,900,000 at Grand Coulee; and the St. Lawrence Seaway, which would at best have 2.2 millions.

Warren suggests inclusion in the project of an iron and steel industry, atomic energy plant, chemical industry, fertilizers, public utilities and an aluminum industry.

Charge Woman With Perjury

EDMONTON (BUP)—A young Edmonton woman was arrested in police court Thursday after she admitted she had committed perjury while testifying in the preliminary hearing of theft and shopbreaking charges against two youths.

Lorraine Schuster was placed in custody after crown prosecutor Guy Beaudry warned her that a conviction on a charge of perjury carries a possible 14-year prison sentence.

Miss Schuster had been testifying in the hearing of the charges against Kenneth Popow and James McKee, who are alleged to have broken into the Calder Lumber and Hardware store and stolen some articles, including four boxes of shotgun shells.

The woman claimed that she had driven around in a car with Popow and James Myhaluk on the day of the crime, March 22. However, she claimed they had never gone anywhere near the raided store.

Myhaluk, who is now serving a two-and-a-half years in prison term after pleading guilty to the charge, testified that all four of them had driven to the store but only he and McKee entered the building.

Miss Schuster later admitted having gone to the Calder store.

"You admit you committed perjury?" Beaudry then asked.

"Yes," the witness replied. The prosecutor asked her "who got you to do this?" "Nobody," she answered, "it was my own idea."

She was then placed in custody on a charge of perjury.

Lac la Biche News Briefs

At the regular meeting of the Canadian Legion, plans were made for the Coronation Day celebration.

Fire works are now on order, and should be leaving the factory on May 11. Weather permitting, the aerial fireworks will be set off on the lake, probably off one or more boats. Should weather prove inclement, the display will be off the dock. Either point giving the spectators a good view.

The addition to the Legion Hall, started last fall, is now nearing completion, and the plumbing installations are well under way. Another week or so and the work should be complete. The renovations will be a modernization and an improvement to the club.

Mrs. John B. Currat and daughter Beatrice have returned to Lac La Biche after spending the last eight months in Edmonton, where Miss Currat attended the University of Alberta. Miss Currat is now teaching grade five at the Dr. Swift School at Lac La Biche.

Grain To Stay In Rail Cars

VANCOUVER (BUP) — Canada's chief transport controller, Roy Milner, has decided to leave 5,600 wheat-loaded railway cars standing idle on prairie sidings for the time being.

He believes there is "a good chance" of settling the west coast grain strike before hot weather affects the waiting wheat.

Milner said he doesn't know just when or how the first settlement move will come, but added that both sides were keen to end the walkout.

The elevator companies have asked the union to allow the strike to be settled by arbitration before a judge and offered other terms which include the immediate resumption of ship loading.

Workshop Featured At Teacher's Institute

ATHABASCA—The teachers of the Athabasca school division attended an institute on Friday, April 17, which was sponsored jointly by the members of the ATA local working with Mr. C. Merkley, school superintendent. An excellent representation of the local teachers was assembled in the large class room on the hill for the opening remarks of the chairman, Mr. I. Stonehocker, which started the day's program.

Fraternal greetings from the local Home and School Association were given by the president, Mr. D. Hunter, who stated that the Home and School formed the greatest factory in any area—the one which turns out citizens for tomorrow. It was a great responsibility of both the teachers and the parents to make sure that our students are given the best possible opportunity and training to fit them for the task of improving the world in which we live. It was a pleasure, said Mr. Hunter, to welcome the group on behalf of the Home and School and to wish them a successful institute.

Mr. Evasuik brought greetings from the divisional school board which, along with the teachers, was keenly interested in securing the best education for the children in this area. There was a need for the teachers to emphasize the basic fundamentals in education so that the graduating student would have the standard of attainment desired by prospective employers. If this end could be achieved then better conditions would result in the teaching situation both for the teacher personally and for the student generally.

Mr. C. Merkley spoke on the subject "Little Things in Education," where he emphasized the need for co-operative effort if we were to solve the urgent problems at hand. The problem of centralization was most pressing as the locations of the schools, grades to be taught, van routes to be started and curriculum to be offered were all deserving of serious thought by every educator. Everyone must not only be aware of the problems but should assist in the solution so that the utmost benefit to education for the students in the area would result.

Miss H. Christopherson, from the Department of Education, spoke on the testing program that would be started in the division in the near future. After outlining the various types of tests and their uses, she indicated what the program would likely be here. A few pointers regarding difficulties with testing programs and suggestions on useful devices to use on results were given to the group.

Entertainment at the morning break was provided by the Hendy sisters, who sang two songs, and the Bulmer sisters, who did two tap dance numbers.

The executive for next year was elected at a short business session, which also set the date for next year's meeting. Everyone then adjourned to the Grand Union Hotel for the banquet.

The after dinner speaker, Mr. D. Sullivan, was introduced by Mr. Merkley. Mr. Sullivan gave a very humorous address on "How Not to Make an After Dinner Speech." These informative do's and don'ts were useful hints to all prospective speakers in the audience.

Starting at 2 p.m., the afternoon session was devoted to a Workshop session, with the teachers being divided into eight groups depending on their own choice of topics. An hour was spent in each group with a chairman to stimulate the discussion and a recorder to keep a summary for the combined session. The groups then reassembled to hear the reports of each recorder, which were filed for future distribution to the local teachers.

Mr. Sullivan had acted as a consultant for the workshop, so he now gave his evaluation of the whole institute. Commenting on the favorable as well as the unfavorable aspects, he outlined what he thought this institute had accomplished during the day. Much had been achieved but with more experience and planning, much more benefit could result to every teacher.
